CYRUS DALLIN REVEALS STORY OF PAUL REVERE STATUE OFFERED TOWN

Speaking before the Chamber of Commerce at its dinner meeting in Wyman's tavern last Tuesday evening, Lawrence Breed Walker, radio commentator, urged his listeners to emulate Paul Revere and live up to the principles of rugged individualism, instant action and burning patriotism which Revere believed were so essential in shaping the destinies of this country. The occasion for the address by Mr. Walker was a special Paul Revere Night at which Cyrus E. Dallin, Arlington's illustrious sculptor told the real story behind the making of his famous Paul Revere model which was intended for a statue originally contemplated by the City of Boston but never a reality because of several obstacles including jealousy and politics. The presentation of a $5,000 cash prize to Preston O. Brown, whose drawing of the Dallin model was voted the best among those submitted by several high school pupils in a recent competition also took place.

A. William Platine presided over the meeting. Secretary Anna B. Callahan reported the following names proposed for membership in the Chamber: William B. Ladd, Jr., Clarence E. Johnson, Alfred S. Cavalletta, Charles Margasian, Ruth D. Bellows, Juliette B. Houle and Mary T. Bunker. Daniel M. Hooley was introduced as a new member. Earl A. Ryder spoke briefly in the interest of the Community Symphony Orchestra concert to be given in the Town Hall next Tuesday evening. The members were also urged to attend the lecture on Communism to be given in the Town Hall by Rev. Russell Sullivan, S. J., on February 14 at 3 o'clock under the sponsorship of the Catholic Daughters of America. Mr. Ryder as chairman of the program committee next introduced Arlington contributed its part to help stamp out infantile paralysis at the second annual Birthday Ball for the President which was held in Robbins Memorial town hall last Saturday evening. A most attractive program was enjoyed by the many who attended the affair. From the stage, appropriately decorated with palms, variety entertainment was presented during the early part of the evening. The program opened with a sparkling revue by pupils of the Irene Marie Charron Dance Studio. Several of the talented young people were forced to give encores. All who took part were Arlington residents. They were the three O'Neil Sisters, Rita McLean, Dorothy Campbell, Elsa Delreccio, June Lucas, Jackie and Louise Leonard, the two Price Sisters, Betty and Helen, Patsy Power, Carolyn Downing and Margaret Slattery. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ralph O'Neil. Through the courtesy of the Federal Theatre Vaudeville division, six acts of entertainment were presented. Lew Fennard, juggler opened this part of the program. Other entertainers included the Macione Sisters, singers; Travato, a clever violinist who kept the filled balcony of spectators in happy spirit; Donovan & Rome, character comedians; Welton & Morgan, comedians; and Dunlay & Merrill, a singing and talking team. Mabel Lorraine was mistress of ceremonies with Chester French at the piano. Thomas De Petro was manager in charge of this presentation. Immediately following the stage show, P. Joseph McManus, general chairman of the local committee, was introduced and expressed his appreciation for the support given the affair.

LARGE NUMBER ENJOYS PRESIDENT'S DAY BALL

A most colorful prelude was given the grand march when color bearers representing the various military organizations of the town appeared in the hall for the massing of colors under the direction of Charles Boutillier, of American Legion post 39. The William Power Kennibbs Post, U.S.W.V., The Disabled American Veterans Chapter, Post 1775 Veterans of Foreign Wars and Post 39 American Legion were represented and their colors were all massed in front of the stage.

For the grand march, Mr. Boutillier served as marshal in the absence of Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock who was unable to attend because of illness. Among town officials and committee members in the grand march were P. Joseph McManus, Selectmen Ernest W. Davis and Harold M. Estabrook, Representative Hollis M. Gott, Town Clerk Earl A. Ryder, Frank

Gas Station Gunmen Before Grand Jury

Fate Of Pair Arrested By Officers Peabody And Curran Following Holdup In East Arlington Now In Hands Of Grand Jury—May Be Indicted Today—Alert Station Attendant And Police Radio Bring Quick Arrests

Another chapter in the hectic career of two young gunmen, a career which came to a sudden end when two Arlington police officers arrested them at gunpoint following a gasoline station holdup in East Arlington last Sunday evening, was written yesterday afternoon when the case against the youth's was presented to the Grand Jury. The two were held at police headquarters all week so that they might be questioned by police from surrounding communities in connection with other holdups.

The two arrested were A. Howard Files, 20, of Pleasant street, Watertown and Dominic Ravesi, 19, of Chapman street, the same city. According to the police, Files had a 45-caliber army type pistol and $46.15 which was allegedly removed from the cash drawer of the Arthur Cardinal's gasoline station, at 264 Massachusetts avenue. Credit for the sensational arrest which took place within a few minutes after the holdup was given George Smith, 20, of Newport street, the attendant who was held up and the radio broadcasting system at local headquarters, Lieutenant Thomas Sullivan is handling the case against the gunmen.

Smith was painting the floor of the station when the car used by the holdup men pulled into the station yard at about 10:30 Sunday evening. One of the holdup pair entered the station. After ordering Smith, at gunpoint, to hand over all bills and coins in the cash register, the gunman backed Smith into the grease room and warned him not to try to remember him. Rather than obeying this order,

Henry G. Wilton Wins West Indies Cruise

Henry G. Wilton of Arlington, winner in a nationwide production contest sponsored by the Lumbermen Mutual Casualty Company of Chicago, leaves New York tomorrow on an eighteen-day cruise in the Caribbean and South American waters. He is accompanied by Mrs. Wilton and Miss Basso of his office. One of twenty-seven winners, it was Mr. Wilton's sales of Lumbermen's automobile and general casualty insurance during 1936 that won a place for him in the cruise party. The contest was open to 5,000 of the insurance company's representatives throughout the nation.

The S. S. Statendam, which will carry the winners on their 6,000 mile trip, will slip its moorings in New York harbor at five minutes past midnight, Saturday. After having visited such romantic spots as Porto Rico, Jamaica, Guadalupe, Venezuela, Colombia, Panama and Havana, Cuba, the party will return to New York on February 23rd.

According to Mr. Wilton, Lumbermen sells more automobile insurance than any other mutual company in the world. Since organization in 1912—twenty-five years ago—its assets have risen from $25,000 to over $25,000,000.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, February 7.
The Golden Text is: "We all, with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (II Corinthians 3:18).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law" (Galatians 5:16-18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won. To stop eating, drinking, or being clothed materially before the spiritual facts of existence are gained step by step, is not legitimate. When we wait patiently on God and seek truth righteously, He directs our path. Imperfect mortals grasp the ultimate of spiritual perfection slowly; but to begin aright and to continue the strife of demonstrating the great power of being, is doing much" (p. 254).

Mass Meeting Held To Encourage Peace Throughout World

Delegations from communities throughout Greater Boston attended the opening event of the 1937 Emergency Peace Campaign, inaugurating an active drive to crystallize public opinion on anti-war measures facing the next Congress. This was a big mass meeting in Tremont Temple, Boston, on Tuesday evening, January 12, preceded by group seminars and suppers in the afternoon.

Attending the meeting were the Rev. Clifford C. Simpson of the Park Avenue Congregational Church, Arlington, Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Dexter of Belmont, and by Mrs. H. Davis of the Women's Alliance, First Church, Unitarian, in Lexington.

Miss Maude Royden, famous preacher from London was one of a trio of distinguished speakers scheduled to address the mass meeting. The other addresses were Dr. Sherwood Eddy, world traveler, author and lecturer, and Rabbi Philip S. Bernstein of Rochester, N. Y., noted platform orator.

The afternoon seminars embraced four different groups, meeting in four separate places. They dealt with the campaign program for governmental action to keep the United States out of war, all of them taking up a plank of neutrality legislation and, in addition, each one taking up one or more of the other planks. The seminars were for women and educators, for business men, for ministers and for young people.

Observance of a special "Peace Sunday" was a preliminary to the mass meeting. On January 10 ministers throughout Greater Boston, who are co-operating in promoting the session, preached a special sermon on "How to Keep the United States Out of War and War Out of the World."

WORTH SERIOUS THOUGHT

The century-old fight for abolition of capital punishment in Massachusetts will be renewed before the legislative committee on judiciary at the State House on February 11. There are two bills before the legislature on this subject. One proposes the complete abolition of the death penalty, the other would permit the juries in first degree murder cases to recommend life imprisonment if they believed the circumstances to warrant such recommendation.

The principal objection to complete abolition is that the continuance of the death penalty constitutes a deterrent to murder. The proponents of abolition point, however, to the low homicide rates of Maine, a rural community and Rhode Island, the most densely populated state in the Union, both of which have abolished capital punishment.

It may be that only the execution of an innocent man, such as admittedly came near happening in the Lynn theatre murder case will arouse the public to the point of demanding the abolition of the death penalty. There seems to be no logical reason however, why juries should not be permitted to recommend life imprisonment in place of execution, which practice is now permitted in the great majority of States and in Federal government cases.

TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS OF SERVICE

The Boy Scouts of America, incorporated Feb. 8, 1910, and chartered by Congress June 15, 1916 have during the past twenty-seven years rendered notable service to the Nation. They have done effective work in this community and throughout the country. During the World War their efforts on behalf of the Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns and other measures were outstanding. In times of distress from flood, hurricane, or tornado, they have proved the effectiveness of organized boy service. During the period of economic stress through which the country has just passed, they contributed in many ways to the relief of suffering and in the flood areas this year they are giving splendid service.

From February 7 to February 13 the organization will celebrate its twenty-seventh anniversary. We earnestly urge our civic organizations, our churches and our schools to co-operate with Sachem Council in carrying out an anniversary program for a definite recognition of the effective service rendered by the Boy Scouts of America to the end that the work of the Boy Scout Program may be extended to a larger proportion of the boyhood of this town.

Rev. Mr. Barber To Give Lecture At The Universalist Church
Thursday evening, February 11, Rev. Laurence Barber will give an illustrated lecture at the Universalist church on New England Beautiful. He will show 125 colored slides of scenic interest in four New England states. Views of Massachusetts, the northern part of Maine, and Vermont and New Hampshire, showing both the lake and mountain regions as well as some places of historic interest will be included.
Through a number of years Rev. Mr. Barber has been lecturing in these various states and the result is a remarkable group of unusually beautiful and artistic views. Along with the pictures, Mr. Barber has a most interesting way of presenting the story of the trip. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

The next regular meeting of the Arlington Fortnightly club will be held in Junior Library hall, next Thursday, Dr. George Lilligard of Cambridge will speak on the Child Labor Amendment. An important business meeting at 7:30 will precede the guest speaker.

HEAT HEADQUARTERS OF ARLINGTON

DO YOU BUY HEAT ? ARE YOU ATTRACTED OR JUST FUEL BY CUT PRICES

For the past eighteen years it has always been our policy to sell the BEST coal and coke obtainable at the lowest possible price.

It is most gratifying to have some of our old customers, who have bought elsewhere for a month or two, call and say that they tried a ton of this coal or that coke to save 50 cents, BUT—"Never Again!"

It proves our policy is right. Do not be fooled by cut prices. Remember you are buying HEAT, not just coal or coke, and you get exactly what you pay for.

What does 50 cents amount to on a ton of coal or coke which gives you very little heat, burns out quickly and gives you no end of trouble?

Town Meeting

with close to perfect attendance, the committee has made trips over the town to gain the advantage of a first hand survey.

The town was partitioned off into sections based on the lines of the three junior high schools, and sub-committees were appointed to study the needs of each locality.

The committee for the Center reported that their district had plenty of land; need was not for more land but of rendering places already owned fit for use. No great expense is involved.

Quite different, however, was the situation at the ends of the town. The committee for East Arlington reported that with the exception of small school playgrounds, suitable only for young children, that section of the town was very poor in land holding. They recommended the purchase of two sites, one on the north and the other on the south side of Massachusetts avenue.

The committee for the Heights reported a similar condition in the west end of the town and also recommended the purchase of two tracts of land, one on either side of Massachusetts avenue.

The members of the general committee feel that land values are reasonably low at the moment but are not likely to remain so. There are indications that a real building boom is already in progress. Consequently, the committee recommends that the town purchase park lands in both East Arlington and the Heights.

The committee feels very strongly that we must take care of the recreational needs of the town's youth. Sanford Bates, one of the greatest of authorities on

"Boomerang"
Here Tonight

"Boomerang", the sensational comedy drama, will be presented in Robbins Town Hall tonight at 8:15. A special matinee for children will be given this afternoon. It is a new play entertainment and dramatic with a serious plea for peace interwoven among the comedy scenes.

Rehearsals have been most promising. Mrs. George Tewksbury will delight the hearts of the audience in her interpretation of Sadie, the village gossip. With her will be seen Russell Perham in his role as Perkins, the perfect butler.

Chester Glinder makes a very forceful strike leader and among his fierce companions are Robert Wellington and William Eldridge. Alfred Repetto is excellent as the excited and worried plant manager. Mrs. John Berry plays with feeling a deeply emotional part. William Mower makes a very dignified clergyman.

Among the best salesmen of the munition company are Bradford Doty, Albert Pierce, Meredith Brown, Leonard Roberts, Paul Hutchinson, Dr. Randolph Juthe, and Warren Guild. They scheme with John Powers to plunge the world into war.

Contest Started Over
Will Of Late Publisher

Atty. Albert W. Wunderly, well known Arlington attorney last Friday filed a petition in the Middlesex County Probate Court seeking to vacate the decree appointing Atty. Edward M. Peters executor under the will of James D. P. Wingate, late of Medford. Mr. Wingate's will was filed by Atty. Peters on January 14.

The petition was filed at the request of Mrs. Helen Wingate Kelley and Mrs. Dorothy Wingate Parrott, daughters of the late Mr. Wingate. They have also filed a claim of appeal from the decree appointing Mr. Peters as executor of the will. The heirs claim that Atty. Peters obtained the making of the will through undue influence and while Mr. Wingate was of unsound mind.

Mr. Wingate was prominent among newspaper publishers and for many years was the publisher of the Medford Mercury.

W.C.T.U. Asked To Aid
War Against Narcotics

The Women's Christian Temperance Union has been asked to cooperate with the Federal Commissioner of Narcotics in the battle against the illegal sale and use of narcotics. According to a letter written by H. J. Anslinger, Federal Commissioner of Narcotics, 195 tons of marijuana were confiscated and destroyed in 1935 by various state officers with whom the Federal agents cooperated. There is no Federal law against the production and use of this drug, the letter states, and the legal fight against its abuse is largely a state problem. In many states, the gravity of this situation remains unrealized, and the laws on the drug are inadequately enforced. The W. C. T. U. has been urged to stress the necessity for the early enactment of a uniform state narcotic act in states which have not adopted it.

This matter will be thoroughly discussed at the next meeting of the Arlington W. C. T. U.

Funeral services for Thomas Guinan late of 15 Wildwood ave. who died last Monday at the age of 67, were held yesterday morning. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Harry E. Baker

Harry E. Baker, of Menotomy road, prominent real estate agent, this week filed his nomination papers as candidate for the one-year term on the Board of Assessors.

In an interview with a NEWS representative, he pointed out that he has been actively engaged in the real estate business in Arlington for several years and is familiar with problems of both real estate ownership and management from the practical side. He feels this qualifies him to act intelligently in giving full consideration to property owners' problems as they relate to taxation and is interested in an impartial way to serve all the citizens, with special privileges for none. His training provides him the necessary experience to appraise property fairly.

Always interested in town elections, he has actively worked for the election of other outstanding candidates and his host of friends feel that now is an opportune time to recognize these past services and ability by electing him Assessor. For these reasons he feels he is well qualified to fill this important town office.

duced Mr. Walker who substituted for A. J. Philpott originally scheduled to address the meeting. Mr. Walker opened his remarks with a brief biography of Paul Revere. Giving the latter credit for coining the phrase, "God Save the Colony," which was later changed to "the Commonwealth," the speaker took occasion to lash at conditions at the State House in recent years. He rapped the padded payrolls and heavy taxation which he charged was driving industry out of the State. Too many state jobs have been given out on the basis of friendship, he said. Quoting from letters written by Revere, the WMEX commentator pictured Revere as a man who kept up his patriotic enthusiasm because he always had a picture of Victory before him; nothing deterred him; he had a sense of humor and believed in rugged individualism.

Decrying paternalism, Mr. Walker charged that too many people go to the government for help. He lashed at the WPA and the Communistic tendencies of the day and stressed the need of patriotism and action for one language, one Constitution and one flag.

Introduced as an estimable citizen and a great genius, Mr. Dallin spoke freely and sincerely of the great disappointment which had come into his life in having been unable thus far to see his model of Paul Revere made into a statue. He told of how, fifty years ago, he entered the competition for the model of the Paul Revere equestrian statue for the City of Boston. He told of the selection of his model as the best. He told of the second competition ordered by the City of Boston, the jealousy and political obstacles which followed and made it impossible for Boston to have the statue made from Mr. Dallin's winning model.

"I consider that model of Paul Revere the greatest thing I've ever done," Mr. Dallin said. "It was made when I was but a boy; I'm still a boy and still disappointed. If I pass on without seeing this statue erected somewhere, I shall feel greatly disappointed. I prefer to see it in Arlington. I'm laying my cards on the table. Boston will not get it for one cent less than $50,000. Arlington can have it for $10,000 less than that amount."

Arthur Birch, who with a group of civic-minded men arranged for the Paul Revere Night to create interest locally in the model made by Arlington's internationally famous sculptor with the hope that Mr. Dallin's model may be seriously considered by the townspeople, spoke briefly. He said that Arlington should take its place in the history of the country and it should do honor to Paul Revere for what he did. He suggested that the statue would be given an ideal setting if erected on a small plot directly in front of the senior high school, in the middle of the avenue. Pictures of the drawings made by the high school pupils, namely, Preston Orchard, Virginia Lantigua, Phyllis Sylvester, Herbert Corner, John Buckley, Helen Peabody, Thomas Donlon, Russell Newcomb, Jane Carroll, Stanley Larson and William Allen were next shown on a screen. The large gathering present voted on the drawings with Orchard getting the highest number of votes. He was presented a check of $5.00 from Mr. Birch, Donald Plummer, instructor of freehand drawing at the high school, described how the competition among the pupils was conducted.

ARLINGTON BUICK COMPANY

NEW TUNE-UP DEPAR TMENT AT PERHAM'S

With motorists today seeking the maximum gasoline mileage and the peak of engine performance from their cars, Charles B. Perham Incorporated, Arlington's authorized Ford agency at 295 Broadway, has recently installed a new motor tune-up section in its large service department, which will answer this need. The new tune-up department pictured with this story includes a new Weidenhoff Ignition Analyzer, Carburetor Analyzer, Ford Laboratory Test Set and other up-to-the minute equipment which to the average layman means little, although it comprises such intricate and accurate equipment that it will positively analyze any make of automobile motor without the slightest possibility of guess work.

This new motor tune-up department is in charge of Vernon S. Burnham whose work is under the supervision of Albert J. Axtman, manager of the Perham

Service department. Mr. Axtman is by no means a newcomer to Arlington. For the past fifteen years he has been engaged in automobile service work locally and is thoroughly familiar with Weidenhoff Certified motor tune-up analysis. These men understand how this tune-up equipment measures the efficiency of an automobile motor. To them it is as simple as the work of an X-ray technician who knows how to take and read X-ray pictures. The installation of this new Weidenhoff equipment is just another forward step taken by Perham's to give the public the best there is. It is no secret that this certified motor tune-up service is so accurate and satisfactory that several motor dealers send their cars to Perham's service department for tune-ups. The system will tune up all types of cars and each job is guaranteed for 5000 miles against defects in workmanship. The Weidenhoff Analyzers are really interesting and different. The Ignition Analyzer for instance is the first piece of equipment, which tests a distributor, ignition coil and condenser all at one time, making possible "balanced ignition." There are no meters or indicating devices which the average motorists does not understand, but instead the true picture of the ignition system's condition is revealed before the eyes of the motorist at a glance by means of brilliant tubes of arc light intensity which revolve in the cup of the analyzer testing the ignition. The Carburetor Analyzer eliminates road tests and saves time. This analyzer like other equipment in Perham's new department shows the motorist how he can get better engine performance. The tune-up service is offered by Perham's at a very reasonable price. The owner of any make of car will save money by getting this tune-up every 5000 miles or so.

Aged Resident Laid At Rest

The funeral of Mrs. Quitilla Anna (Birchard) Russell, 91, one of Arlington's oldest residents took place last Monday afternoon. The services were conducted in the Saville & Kimball Funeral chapel with Rev. Grady D. Pagan, of the First Baptist Church officiating. During the services, hymns were sung by John Striker. Burial took place in Mt. Hope cemetery, West Roxbury.

Mrs. Russell lived for the past ten years with her daughter, Mrs. Bradley A. McCausland, at 39 Newport street. Through an unusually strange coincidence, Mrs. Russell died at 2:30 a.m. last Saturday, at the very same hour that her brother, Delroy Gross Birchard, 88, of New Castle, Pennsylvania passed away. Neither knew that the other was ill. Mr. Birchard made his home with a daughter, Edith Birchard, a teacher in New Castle schools. Mrs. Russell and Mr. Birchard were the last surviving members of a large family and were very close in affection for each other. They were both deeply religious.

Mrs. Russell was known as "Aunt Tillie" and her book of poems entitled, "The Star of Christmas and Other Poems" was published in 1935. She leaves three grand-children, Elizabeth McCausland, of Arlington; and John and Charles Button of Chicago. Clarence C. Birchard, president of the C. C. Birchard Publishing company and A. D. Birchard, treasurer of the firm, are nephews.

MRS. FLORENCE C. WILDER

The funeral of Mrs. Florence C. Wilder who passed away last Sunday at the age of seventy-seven, was held Wednesday afternoon. The services were conducted in her late home, 22 Melrose st. Mrs. Wilder was the widow of Melville B. Wilder.

SCREEN TEST GUILD SEEKING NEW TALENT

Who will be the next to join the Hollywood ranks?

That is the question movie directors and producers are asking today. The SCREEN TEST GUILD with headquarters in the Metropolitan Building, Boston, Massachusetts, now solve the problem for these movie executives.

Headed by Larry Lasky, who comes from a family of theatrical folks, Al Luttringer, noted New England director, actor and manager, and Ross Frisco, theatrical booker and agent, the SCREEN TEST GUILD is completely equipped to screen-test Hollywood aspirants.

Studio officials have already screen-tested Miss Marian Flynn of Norwood, 'Miss Massachusetts', who was recently selected to play the leading role in "It Happened in Boston," which was shown at the Loew's Theatres. Passing the test with flying colors, too, is Miss Barbara Keith of Brookline, widely-known artists' and photographers' model, whose portraits have hung in the leading galleries of the United States. A student of dramatics and voice at the Boston Conservatory of Music, Miss Flynn has a striking resemblance to Betty Davis, the Warner Brothers' star. Miss Keith has been a prominent model since the age of 16.

Miss Flynn and Miss Keith, however, are only two of the many New Englanders who have been flocking the studio. Many have learned that the SCREEN TEST GUILD is the short-cut to Hollywood.

wood, for the studio has contacted the leading agencies and movie studios on the West Coast. Many prominent Hollywood executives from leading studios and film agencies will preview the tests submitted by the SCREEN TEST GUILD.

Mr. Lasky, Mr. Luttringer and Mr. Frisco have also made extensive contacts in New England, New York and the coast for the promotion and the exploitation of their potential stars. The discoverer of such screen names as Ralph Bellamy and Gladys George, Mr. Luttringer directed his own companies for the past 15 years in New England and was formerly a leading man in production and stock.

During his career as managing director, he has produced a large portion of the world's best plays and has spent some $2,000,000 in New England theatrical enterprises. Co-author of the "House of Exile" and "Private Harmony," three-act plays, he has served as a former manager and director of the Wilbur Theatre and is regarded by his associates in the theatrical world as an able talent scout.

Associated with the SCREEN TEST GUILD are staff cameramen, production executives and technicians who are thoroughly familiar with all the Hollywood requirements. Further information relative to the screen tests may be obtained from either Mr. Lasky or Mr. Luttringer, studio officials announced today.

Golden, Jr., will be among invited guests. Chairman Ernest W. Davis will welcome the audience on behalf of the town.

"Keep Hair Perfectly Groomed", Women Told At Hairdressers Show

The Edith Hine Beauty Salon, Arlington Center, one of this section's most attractive beauty salons played an important part at the Ladies' Hairdressers Show at the Statler Hotel last week. William Purrier, proprietor of the salon, and member of the Educational committee of the 1937 trade and style show of the Hairdressers' association was one of the principal speakers. Without a well groomed coiffure one cannot feel her best, he warned.

"A woman lacks confidence in herself unless her hair is immaculately kept and coiffured," said Mr. Purrier. "The old fashioned idea is coming back. In the Victorian age every well dressed woman had her hairdressed. He came to the home and shampooed, brushed and coiffured her hair. Some women of fashion had the services of their hairdressers daily. We must educate women to the idea that it is a necessity and not a vanity to pay a weekly visit to the hairdresser."

"Miss Junior League" a creation by Miss Marie Burns of the local salon was featured at the show.

We're Not Talking to "Stay-at-homes"

If you're content to sit in an armchair and look at four walls don't read this...

BUT IF YOU
WANT TO GET
OUT and do things
... meet people ... go places ... be the beautiful women
you know you can be ... THEN-

Go on A Beauty Spree!

Let yourself go. Know for once, just how beautiful you can be.

Start with a shampoo. A fluffy, sudsy, richer-than-cream sort of thing. Add a rinse, while one of our girls rubs and scrubs and brings back life and lustre to your hair. You'll feel grand ... but the party's just beginning! Ask for a trim. Have your tresses molded to a new silhouette, while deft fingers snip and cut. Close your eyes, and let a wave work wonders! (Don't expect starched curls and stiffened ringlets ... a wave means a HAIRDRESS here!) When the comb has been drawn through soft waves for the last time ... sit up and take stock! You'll feel ready for a coronation ... or a curtain call. But sit tight, lady ... there's more to come!

Call for a facial, and throw in a manicure for luck! Don't say a word. Let the operator choose your Make-up and apply it expertly. Be DIFFERENT about it all. You won't believe your eyes ... so we'll do something about them, too ... starting with your eyebrows, and working right down to the last delicate touch of shadow. And there you are, the beautiful woman you always knew you could be, revealed!

LOOKING INSIDE

Feb. 4, 1937—No change in the political situation since last week. Mr. Marsh may run unopposed for Public Works although I have heard hints of some one who knew somebody who told them that a certain person was out for the job. The only real fight seems to be for the one year term of Assessor with two or three sure to run and perhaps four in the field. Here you have a personal scrap—one candidate told another candidate he ought to withdraw because one of the other two men might die some day and he could then be appointed to fill the job. "Why don't you speak for yourself John?" only it wasn't a John that said that but number 500.

P. S. Saw a new stunt in a restaurant and tried it out at home. A man was cutting butter up into bits. The butter had been wrapped in a white paper and he laid a piece of that over his knife as he cut it up—no butter stuck to the knife or paper—slick.

P. S. S. Prizes of $100,000 to be given away by one manufacturer, watches, coffee and other sums of money. Hardly a radio program on the air or a magazine advertisement without some kind of a contest for some sort of a prize. The only rub is that each and every one requires you to send some part of the wrapper of the advertised products. So here is an idea for a new industry. Supply these wrappers to would-be contestants. You could get them out of any rubbish barrel or from the dump for nothing. So why not look for the "ad" in the NEWS—"Soap wrappers, cigarette wrappers, box tops, whole or any part of any carton supplied for any contest. Get in on the big national contests. Make big money. Millions in prizes." Ain't that an idea.

P. S. S. S. A shoulder strap is what keeps an attraction from becoming a sensation.
